

FEDERAL HIGHWAY COMING THIS WAY

Extension Assured On To Richmond From Lancaster—Committee To Be Here Friday

As Madison county has previously placed the Richmond and Lancaster pike as the next project for state-aid reconstruction work, after completion of the Irvine pike, extension of the Federal Highway on from Lancaster to this city to connect it with the Dixie Highway is now an assured fact.

County Judge Forest Stapp, of Garrard county, who has been in the city here for several days, is expected to arrive here Friday, when he will meet with the members of the Federal Highway committee, who are greatly interested in extension of the Federal Highway through their counties, will come to Richmond Friday and the whole highway situation will be discussed. Boyle sent delegates to Lancaster Saturday, when agreements were made to reconstruct the road as far as Lancaster. Now the joint committee will come to Richmond, and be given a cordial welcome here.

Enthusiastic meetings have been held in Boyle and Garrard, in promoting this Federal Highway extension. The Danville Messenger had the following about the meetings being held there. It said:

A large delegation of citizens from Boyle county went to Lancaster this morning and met with the Fiscal Court of Garrard county at 11 o'clock when the question of a Federal Highway through this section of the State was considered. The meeting was presided over by County Judge Forest Stapp and a most enthusiastic meeting was held. Every member of the court present and many of the Garrard county citizens expressed themselves as being in favor of the road. Senator J. W. Harlan explained the purpose of the meeting, after which Esq. J. A. Cheek, of the Boyle county Fiscal Court, made a talk on the question. The division road engineers, Messrs. G. C. Appleton and W. B. Paynter, representing the State Road Department, were present and indicated that the Department of Roads would give sufficient time for working out the road project.

After discussing the question for some time the court voted in favor of the project, provided a sufficient amount of money could be raised to pay Garrard county's part of the construction. Judge Stapp said that his county would either have to vote on bonds in order to build the road, but that he believed that could be easily done, and appointed a committee to work with committees from the other interested counties and to go to Frankfort and take the matter up with the State Road Department. The committee named follows: The committee named follows: Dr. J. A. Amon, Squire Carter, Squire Clark, J. E. Robinson, R. L. Burton, John Wynn, Col. G. B. Swinebroad, J. W. Elmore, L. G. Davidson, and S. C. Denny.

The above committee, together with the committee from Boyle county, will take the matter up with the Fiscal Court of Madison county within the next week or two. A meeting at Richmond will probably be held December 26 for the purpose of considering the question. If Madison county looks favorably upon the project, the State Road Department will then be asked for sufficient time to raise the necessary money to build the road.

The route of the road as proposed starts at Harbottle, in Hart county, and runs through the county seats of Green, Taylor, Marion, Boyle, Garrard and to Richmond, in Madison county where it will connect with the Dixie Highway.

The committee which will come here from Danville will be composed of W. S. Glone, Chairman; Squire J. A. Cheek, Attorney C. C. Bagby, John M. Henry and Sam Nichols, J. C. Alecock, Senator J. W. Harlan, W. V. Richardson, L. F. Zingle, Mayor McIntyre, G. A. McRoberts, C. P. Cecil, Jr., Capt. A. B. Massie, Yates Hudson, Jake Robinson, and Mr. Appleton.

Progress on Dixie Highway
The current issue of the Dixie Highway Magazine, gives a brief summary of progress made in the mountain counties of Kentucky south of Madison. It said:

The mountain counties along the eastern division of the Dixie Highway between Cincinnati and Knoxville are putting their road building organizations in winter quarters. However, they are not losing any time in completing all of their preparations to go ahead and complete the entire mileage of the Dixie Highway through their counties to meet Government and State specifications, once they resume work in the spring. Rockcastle county has completed the grade of the seven miles between Livingston and the Rockcastle river which will eliminate the difficult crossing of Gauley mountain. The grade will be allowed to settle this winter and will be ready for the surfacing in the spring and summer. They will likewise complete the surfacing between Mt. Vernon and Livingston. Laurel county has completed all of their grading and expects to begin surfacing the remaining mileage in the spring with Federal Aid. In Whitley county the road authorities were able to get the bridge in at Saxton before winter weather set in. An agreement has been reached between the county and State road authorities whereby the highway from Corbin to Williamsburg is widened and resurfaced and the surfacing completed between Williamsburg and Jellico. The county has raised the necessary additional funds for this. In Campbell county, the state highway department has awarded the county $22,000 of Federal and State aid which the $300,000 Campbell county has will widen the splendid grade and partly surfaced road which has already been built from Jellico to LaFollette. The road will probably be constructed of penetration asphalt macadam.

SHIPS READY FOR ALL BOOZE EXPORTATIONS

Louisville, Dec. 22.—The United States Shipping Board today notified railroad agents here that sufficient tonnage is available to move all whisky out of the country before national prohibition takes effect.

No Decision On Beer Yet

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Dec. 22.—The Supreme Court recessed until January 5th without handing down an opinion on the constitutionality of sections of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act affecting the alcoholic content of beer. The Supreme Court today ordered the government to show cause on January 5th why original proceedings should not be instituted by Rhode Island and New Jersey retail liquor dealers to have determined the constitutionality of the national prohibition amendment.

In ordering the government to show cause, the court, according to attorneys, followed an unusual procedure. Ordinarily in such instances permission to bring such proceedings and a date is fixed when they are returnable. Generally it is believed the court made an order to expedite the matter in view of the amendment becoming effective January 16th.

The Cincinnati Enquirer said Sunday that a twenty-four million dollar stream of whisky is flowing through Cincinnati from Kentucky to the eastern seaboard for export.

The whisky is being shipped by the Kentucky Distilleries and Company, each of the following places in Kentucky sending forth 20 carloads: Midway, Paris, Carrollton, Lair, Latonia, Louisville, Nicholasville, New Haven, New Hope, Tyrone and Withrow.

In each of these 220 cars is 10 barrels, each containing 50 gallons, or 5,000 gallons to the car, a total of 1,200,000 gallons. As each gallon is estimated to be worth $20 the entire shipment is estimated to be worth $24,000,000.

London Boy Rifled Mail Bags.

Henry Hurst, 18, was arrested at London, Laurel county, Saturday on a federal warrant sworn out by Postmaster E. H. Hackney. He is charged with rifling a lock pouch of United States mail. Hurst has been employed for several months as a rural mail carrier and as an assistant messenger to haul mail back and forth between the postoffice and the railway station. When it was discovered two days ago that on December 12 a mail pouch had been cut and a part of its contents rifled and thrown into a vacant lot near the depot, young Hurst suddenly resigned his place and left, telling some of his friends he had "cut a man's heart out" and must leave the country.

WAS THIS SOURCE OF BIG HILL MOONSHINE?

Hugh Samuels Raids Veteran 'Shiner's Still Just Over the Rockcastle Line

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Hugh Samuels, of Richmond spent Sunday with his family at home, returning from London, where he took Thad Drew, a 60-year old moonshiner of Rockcastle county, whom he caught "dead to rights" late last week. In the capture of Drew and destruction of his still, Mr. Samuels believes that he has stopped the supply of the moonshine whisky which is said to have been rather plentiful around the Big Hill section of Madison county recently. Mr. Samuels said that he has evidence that Drew was making the whisky and selling it to a man near Big Hill at $25 a gallon. Mr. Samuels has the name of the man who has been buying and retailing it in the Big Hill section of his county and he is going to get him if he isn't careful.

At Drew's house, which is just a short distance over the Madison-Rockcastle line, the still was found within a couple of hundred yards of the home. It was destroyed together with two gallons of whisky on hand. Drew is said by Mr. Samuels to have been in business all his life, and never before have the officers been able to prove anything on him. The raid was made by Mr. Samuels with Sheriff Wm. Baker, of Jackson county, Deputy Sheriff George Gabbard who got the evidence on Drew, and then had Deputy Collector Samuels bring the power of Uncle Sam into the game. Drew was released on $500 bond for his appearance later at federal court.

The same force raided the moonshine still of Gaith Philbeck, also in Rockcastle county, but he was too slick for them and made a getaway. His still was about half a mile from his home. The still was destroyed.

Deputy Collector Samuels is kept busy on prohibition enforcement cases such as these, almost exclusively now, and is finding it quite a busy little job.

CITY SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR HOLIDAY

The Madison High School closed Friday for the Christmas and New Year Holidays. Work will be resumed January 5th.

Supt. J. Howard Payne goes Monday to Cold Springs, Campbell county, to spend the holidays with his parents. Most of the teachers have gone to their homes also.

No successor has yet been found for Miss Edna Martin, who is shortly to be married, and has tendered her resignation as teacher of Latin and History in the High School. Miss Anna E. Lewis, now at Hazard, who had accepted the place, has written that she will be unable to come, and this leaves the board in an embarrassing situation as they were counting upon her acceptance of the place.

The term which has just ended has been most successful in every way. It was featured by opening of the new Madison High School, thus marking an important epoch in educational affairs in the city. Supt. J. Howard Payne has done a fine work during the first part of the year and is proving the right man for the place in every way, thoroughly vindicating the judgment of the members of the Board of Education in the selection they made.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Gilbert has sent letters to county judges reminding them of the requirement of the law that county school superintendents give bond for money passing thru their hands. The Fiscal Court fixes the bond.

If pocket books and other articles it contained taken out of bus Friday night be returned to Mrs. Frank Clay, finder may keep money, telephone 691. 327-1p

NORMAN HAPGOOD IN "RED" SPOTLIGHT

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Dec. 22.—Chairman Lodge, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, declined today to discuss the published report that Norman Hapgood, Minister to Denmark, decided to return to the United States after the State Department learned the committee was prepared to make public information which was expected to show Hapgood's activities and sympathy for Russian Soviet government.

MORE REDS TO GO BACK TO RUSSIA

(By Associated Press)

New York, Dec. 22.—The Soviet ark "Buford" which sailed for an unnamed Russian port yesterday, with 249 radical deportees on board, will be followed before she has an opportunity to land by a second "ark" load of reds, according to the best information obtainable today. The second batch of deportees will probably go sometime this week as the government's second drastic step against aliens who would overthrow constitutional government.

The deportation of Emma Goldman and her devoted companion, Alexander Berkman, ends a joint career of 30 years in the United States during which they preached the overthrow of government by violence. He spent 16 years and she three years in jail, but they were never punished for the part their teachings played in attacks by others on life and property.

Berkman served 14 years for shooting Henry Clay Frick, and two years for urging men to abstain from registering for the draft early in the war. Miss Goldman was in prison two years for opposing conscription and one year for inciting to riot. Berkman was never brought to trial on an indictment for murder in connection with the Preparedness Day bomb outrage in San Francisco. Miss Goldman was acquitted of illegal distribution of birth control literature.

"I represent the devil," said Miss Goldman at one of her meetings. "I am an apostle upholding glorious freedom, the apostle standing out against law and order and decency and morality. I am for the devil who leads the way to the absolute yielding up to all the emotions here and now. Women are the slaves of little laws and conventions. They'll learn to break the laws some day."

Berkman and Miss Goldman made their headquarters in New York where their magazines were published, but they were well known in every large city in the United States and also addressed anarchistic meetings in Canada, England, Australia, Holland and other countries.

These meetings enabled them to live as comfortably as any despised capitalist would wish. Admission fees were charged, circulars sold and subscriptions to their magazines taken. At the last meeting they addressed in Chicago prior to their deportation the contributions to help them fight deportations were $5,000. Miss Goldman's bankbook, seized when her magazine was suppressed, showed weekly deposits running from $50 to $700 with one of over $3,700. They lived at the best hotels. In fact they offered to pay their own way to Russia, or, failing that, the difference between steerage and first class in order to have the best accommodations.

Reds Get Bad In New York

(By Associated Press)

New York, Dec. 22.—Led by a woman, who said her husband was deported to Russia yesterday, on the "Soviet Ark" Buford, a mob of 150 "Reds" today attacked the entrance to the Ellis Island ferry in an effort to reach fellow radicals still awaiting deportation. A riot call brought police and soldiers with fixed bayonets and the demonstration ceased. Clara Brooks, a Russian woman, was arrested as the ring leader and jailed for 48 hours.

MAY SLAP KANSAS MINE LEADER IN JAIL

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, Dec. 22.—Declaring violation of the federal court injunction under the Lever act against a further coal strike in Kansas must be stopped, even if the persons guilty have to be put in jail and kept there, Federal Judge Anderson today permitted Alexander Howat, President of Kansas district of the United Mine Workers of America, until next Monday to prepare his defense of charges of contempt of court. Meanwhile Howat's counsel were given until two o'clock this afternoon to present some evidence that the injunction will not be violated in the interim, otherwise, the court declares, he will be forced to put Howat in jail.

Centre Has Great 1920 Schedule

Centre College has a great schedule arranged so far for its football team for next season. The first game of the season will be played with a Virginia college on September 25, the team not having been decided upon as yet. The remainder of the tentative schedule follows:

- Oct. 2—Ohio University at Danville.
- Oct. 9—Open.
- Oct. 16—Transylvania at Danville.
- Oct. 23—Harvard at Cambridge.
- Oct. 30—Georgia Tech at Atlanta.
- Nov. 6—DePauw at Indianapolis or Louisville.
- Nov. 13—Kentucky State at Lexington.
- Nov. 20—Open. (Washington and Jefferson is trying to arrange its schedule so that Centre can be played on this date either in Louisville or Philadelphia.)

Thanksgiving Day — Georgetown at Danville.

There is one tough break in the programme and that is being forced to play Georgia Tech just one week after the Harvard game and both games being away from home. It means that Centre will have a long journey to Cambridge for difficult game and then will have to hurry back and go down to Atlanta for another one.

Dr. Morrison is a widely known and very able exponent of the Word and his series of sermons will undoubtedly be heard with great interest here.

SWIFT & CO'S WEEKLY PRODUCE REVIEW

Receipts of cream this week have not been heavy but there has been a pronounced tendency toward lower prices on butter, due to light demand. For this reason there has been some decline in butterfat prices throughout the country.

There is still a large reserve of eggs in storage. Receipts of fresh eggs are very light, but high prices have curtailed consumption, and there is little demand except for the very finest quality. As it is late in the selling season for storage eggs, and as we are approaching the producing season on fresh, the market has shown easier tendency during the week on both fresh and storage eggs.

Poultry receipts have been lighter during the week, but there has been very little change in the price situation on the selling market. More poultry is being received in the selling centers than is being consumed promptly, and the surplus has been sent to the freezer.

Turkeys appear to be well cleaned up, and sold at record prices. The trade expects the balance of the remaining crop will be sold before January 1st. December 19, 1919

BRIDGE COMPANY INDICTED IN FAYETTE

Grand Jury Charges Toll Gate On Lexington Pike At Bridge Is Nuisance

Saturday was a bad day for the Clay Ferry Bridge Co., and the toll gate on the Lexington pike, at the river. In Richmond Judge Shackelford handed down his opinion granting a temporary injunction to prevent further collection of toll at the bridge until the case is decided finally by the courts. In Fayette county, the grand jury returned an indictment charging the Bridge Co., with maintaining a nuisance with its toll gate at the bridge. A dispatch from Lexington to the Sunday paper said this of it: Lexington, Ky., Dec. 21.—Clay's Ferry Bridge Company, which owns and controls the bridge on the Richmond pike across Kentucky river between Lexington and Richmond, and which has been charging automobileists and others toll without a franchise from the Legislature, it is alleged, was indicted by Fayette county grand jury in session here for maintaining a nuisance. The president and officers of the company were served with notices to answer an indictment here January 5.

Harrison Girl Suicides

Miss Blanche Jennings, 17 years old, a student in the high school in Connersville, Harrison county, ended her life late Saturday by swallowing poison. The girl had disappeared and searching parties had been unable to find her. Saturday an uncle heard that she was at the home of a friend in Cynthia and hurried to the residence. A moment after he arrived she swallowed the drug. She was taken to the home of her grandfather, Frank Mason, and died in a short time. The girl was the daughter of Walter Jennings, formerly Assessor for Harrison county.
